ASSOCIATION STATUTES

TITLE I: PURPOSE AND COMPOSITION

Article 1: An association named SENGAMES (Your Video Games) is created in Dakar in accordance with the provisions of the modified Civil and Commercial Obligations Code. It is a non-profit organization with an unlimited duration, and its headquarters are located at Hann Maristes, Villa No. D28B.

Article 2: The association aims to:

- Unite members driven by a common ideal and foster mutual understanding and solidarity.
- Organize video game competitions in Senegal and raise awareness about esports.
- Bring together and socialize gamers through various activities it plans to organize.

Article 3: The association is open to all individuals, respecting individual beliefs and maintaining independence from political parties. Political, religious, or union-related discussions are prohibited within the association.

Article 4: Any person who agrees to comply with these statutes and the internal regulations may become a member of the association.

Article 5: Membership may be lost due to:

- Resignation.
- Expulsion by the Executive Committee for non-payment of membership fees or for serious misconduct (with the member concerned being given a prior opportunity to explain themselves).

TITLE II: ADMINISTRATION AND FUNCTIONING

Article 6: GENERAL ASSEMBLY

The General Assembly consists of all association members and is the supreme governing body. It meets in an extraordinary session if requested by two-thirds (2/3) of the members.

The agenda is set by the board. The General Assembly deliberates on reports regarding the board's management, as well as the moral and financial status of the association. It approves the financial statements for the past fiscal year and votes on the budget.

It may appoint an audit committee of three members outside the board to verify the financial statements of the past fiscal year. These members are known as auditors.

Decisions are made by a majority vote of the members present. Each member has one vote. For deliberations to be valid, at least one-quarter (1/4) of the members must be present. If this quorum is not met, a second meeting is called with the same agenda at least eight days later, where decisions can be made regardless of the number of members present.

Article 7: EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE
The Executive Committee is the governing body of the association. It is elected by the General Assembly for a renewable three-year term, with one-third (1/3) of its members up for re-election each year. Outgoing members may be re-elected. Committee members must be at least 21 years old.

Article 8: COMPOSITION OF THE BOARD
The Executive Committee elects a board from among its members, which may include at least:

- A President
- A General Secretary
- A General Treasurer

Article 9: TERM AND REPLACEMENT OF BOARD MEMBERS
The board is elected for a one-year term, and its members are eligible for re-election. If a board member resigns or passes away, they are provisionally replaced by another board member until the next General Assembly.

Article 10: VOLUNTARY SERVICE OF MEMBERS
All positions within the association are voluntary and unpaid.

Article 11: BOARD MEETINGS
The board meets at least once a month at the President's invitation. It must also meet if at least one-third (1/3) of its members make a written request to the President.

Meeting minutes are recorded and signed by the President and the session Secretary.

Article 12: RESPONSIBILITIES OF BOARD MEMBERS

- The President represents the legal entity of the association and has all the powers associated with this role. They are personally responsible for the association’s assets, operations, and outcomes. The President, whose vote is decisive, ensures adherence to the statutes and internal regulations and implements the decisions of the General Assembly and the Executive Committee. They authorize all expenditures, preside over meetings, and legally represent the association.

- The General Secretary manages the administration and coordination of all association activities. They are responsible for internal and external communications and oversee the implementation of programs.
- The General Treasurer is responsible for all financial and accounting matters of the association. They manage expenses authorized by the President.

TITLE III: RESOURCES

Article 13: The association's financial resources consist of:

- Revenue from membership card sales.
- Membership fees.
- Donations and contributions from members.

TITLE IV: AMENDMENT OF STATUTES

Article 14: The statutes can only be modified upon proposal by the governing body or by at least one-quarter (1/4) of the General Assembly members.

The proposed amendments must be communicated to General Assembly members at least one month before the scheduled meeting.

The General Assembly can only validly deliberate on modifications if more than half of its members are present. If this quorum is not met, a new meeting is scheduled at least fifteen days in advance, with the same agenda, and can proceed regardless of the number of members present.

